Dear parent/carer,

After the Easter holidays, year 10 will be continuing to complete assessments contributing towards their final grades in English Literature which they are sitting this academic year.

Any students who have not read 'Of Mice and Men' by John Steinbeck will need to ensure they have read this set text before they return on the 12th of April. This text was studied/revised during remote learning, so this is an opportunity for any students who didn't/couldn't engage to now catch-up. Below is a link to an online copy of the text. If you would prefer to buy a hard copy, it is also readily available to purchase online.

Of Mice and Men:

Furthermore, in preparation for their assessments in English we would advise downloading the Herio APP, where they can access walking talking mocks for their English Literature assessments. They can also go to the WJEC site and access past papers and resources for their GCSEs.

Moreover, most students may benefit from watching a version of Shakespeare's play: 'Romeo and Juliet,' to help them to revise in preparation for reattempting this piece of coursework. Below is a link to the RSC's production which is currently available online until the end of March 2021:

Finally, I hope you have found this information to be useful and we thank you for your continuing support.

On behalf of the English Faculty,

Mrs. Laura Davies

(Head of English)
